VENEZUELAN · STREET FOOD

The Corn-Kitchen Counter

A tiny Latin counter where everything starts with corn on the griddle. Handheld, generously filled and finished with a house sauce people ask about for weeks. The queue is the recommendation.

ARGENTINE · BAKERY

The Family Bakery

A family-run South American bakery with a pastry counter longer than your clue sheet. Golden, hand-folded and eaten warm on the pavement outside.

MEXICAN · TAQUERÍA

The Taquería Off the Main Drag

The final hand-off: a West Coast-inspired taquería tucked down a side street, where the tortillas are soft, the salsa is fresh and a squeeze of lime finishes the job.

HOW MUCH FOOD?

Three proper dishes that add up to a full meal. Most players finish the maze full and happy.
